

POLICE COURT GRAFT INQUIRY IS FINISHED

Grand Jury Shown Magistrate's Checks That Were Not Paid.

'NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS'

President Wahle, of the Board of City Magistrates, One of the Witnesses To-Day

The Grand Jury investigation into alleged police court abuses and alleged illegal acts of one of the magistrates, closed to-day. C. G. F. Wahle, president of the Board of City Magistrates, was the last witness examined. He was in the Grand Jury room about half an hour.

The other witnesses heard to-day were Mark Alter, a lawyer, who had appeared twice previously; Leon and Aaron Levy, lawyers, and Solomon Rosenberg, an Essex Market Police Court practitioner. The most important testimony was given by Rosenberg.

He exhibited two checks signed by a city magistrate. Across the face of each check were stamped the words "Not sufficient funds."

Rosenberg explained at length, it is understood, how he came by the checks. He is said to have told the Grand Jury the magistrate in question borrowed $100 from him and gave a check in payment in a few days. The check came back to Rosenberg stamped as described.

He went to the magistrate and asked for an explanation. The magistrate explained so effectively that Rosenberg let him have $50 additional and took another check, dated ahead. This one was returned, too, and Rosenberg has complained that he has been unable to get a settlement.

The checks are in the possession of the Grand Jury. They will form part of the presentment it is expected that body will make in a few days concerning the magistrate.

Mark Alter, who has a big practice in Jefferson Market Court, was questioned closely, and when he came out of the room said to an Evening World reporter:

"The testimony given by me satisfied the Grand Jury that my relations with Magistrate Wahle have been above criticism and entirely honest. My testimony dispelled all the insinuations that have been unjustly cast upon Magistrate Wahle and myself."

Magistrate Wahle appeared at the Criminal Courts Building at noon accompanied by his personal counsel, William Rand, Jr., in answer to a letter received a few days ago from the foreman of the Grand Jury. This letter explained that certain charges had been made against certain magistrates and that the President of the Board of Magistrates the Grand Jury would be pleased to listen to him if he could.

He refused to discuss his testimony when he left the Grand Jury room. So far as can be learned the Grand Jury will be unable to establish the charge that a man accused of complicity in a robbery paid his bail to a magistrate in a police court recently. Other charges of a similar nature were not corroborated.

The testimony taken by the Grand Jury will be written and sent to District Attorney Jerome. It is quite possible he will send it to the Bar Association, and that proceedings will be instituted before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to have one of the city magistrates removed from the bench on the ground that he has placed himself under obligations to lawyers practicing before him.

WAR VETERAN TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Wife Found Brodbeck Hanging in Attic and Cut Him Down in Time.

Frederick Brodbeck, aged sixty, a foreman in the Highway Department of Richmond Borough, attempted to hang himself in the attic of his home to-day, but he was cut down before death by his wife, Brodbeck lives at 625 Madison street, near Concord, S. I.

A week ago Brodbeck, who is a civil war veteran, was recommended for not performing certain road work properly, since then he has brooded, and when the family went out to-day he prepared to kill himself.

Mrs. Brodbeck missed her husband the moment she returned to the house, and searched the building. Brodbeck had just stepped off a chair with a noose around his neck, and the end caught in a letter of the attic. His wife cut him down and he was taken to the S. R. Smith infirmary.

Don't Skip This!

Stand for Lithography
A man who is paid
Wages as big
As the name of his trade.
A man who can do
Expert work of this kind,
Except through World Wants,
Is quite hard to find.

WORLD HELP WANTS

Bring All Kinds of Workers.

WOMEN SEE SUICIDE UNDER AN "L" TRAIN

Man Hurls Himself Under Wheels From Station Platform.

'NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS'

President Wahle, of the Board of City Magistrates, One of the Witnesses To-Day

The Grand Jury investigation into alleged police court abuses and alleged illegal acts of one of the magistrates, closed to-day. C. G. F. Wahle, president of the Board of City Magistrates, was the last witness examined. He was in the Grand Jury room about half an hour.

The other witnesses heard to-day were Mark Alter, a lawyer, who had appeared twice previously; Leon and Aaron Levy, lawyers, and Solomon Rosenberg, an Essex Market Police Court practitioner. The most important testimony was given by Rosenberg.

He exhibited two checks signed by a city magistrate. Across the face of each check were stamped the words "Not sufficient funds."

Rosenberg explained at length, it is understood, how he came by the checks. He is said to have told the Grand Jury the magistrate in question borrowed $100 from him and gave a check in payment in a few days. The check came back to Rosenberg stamped as described.

He went to the magistrate and asked for an explanation. The magistrate explained so effectively that Rosenberg let him have $50 additional and took another check, dated ahead. This one was returned, too, and Rosenberg has complained that he has been unable to get a settlement.

The checks are in the possession of the Grand Jury. They will form part of the presentment it is expected that body will make in a few days concerning the magistrate.

Mark Alter, who has a big practice in Jefferson Market Court, was questioned closely, and when he came out of the room said to an Evening World reporter:

"The testimony given by me satisfied the Grand Jury that my relations with Magistrate Wahle have been above criticism and entirely honest. My testimony dispelled all the insinuations that have been unjustly cast upon Magistrate Wahle and myself."

Magistrate Wahle appeared at the Criminal Courts Building at noon accompanied by his personal counsel, William Rand, Jr., in answer to a letter received a few days ago from the foreman of the Grand Jury. This letter explained that certain charges had been made against certain magistrates and that the President of the Board of Magistrates the Grand Jury would be pleased to listen to him if he could.

He refused to discuss his testimony when he left the Grand Jury room. So far as can be learned the Grand Jury will be unable to establish the charge that a man accused of complicity in a robbery paid his bail to a magistrate in a police court recently. Other charges of a similar nature were not corroborated.

The testimony taken by the Grand Jury will be written and sent to District Attorney Jerome. It is quite possible he will send it to the Bar Association, and that proceedings will be instituted before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to have one of the city magistrates removed from the bench on the ground that he has placed himself under obligations to lawyers practicing before him.

WAR VETERAN TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Wife Found Brodbeck Hanging in Attic and Cut Him Down in Time.

Frederick Brodbeck, aged sixty, a foreman in the Highway Department of Richmond Borough, attempted to hang himself in the attic of his home to-day, but he was cut down before death by his wife, Brodbeck lives at 625 Madison street, near Concord, S. I.

A week ago Brodbeck, who is a civil war veteran, was recommended for not performing certain road work properly, since then he has brooded, and when the family went out to-day he prepared to kill himself.

Mrs. Brodbeck missed her husband the moment she returned to the house, and searched the building. Brodbeck had just stepped off a chair with a noose around his neck, and the end caught in a letter of the attic. His wife cut him down and he was taken to the S. R. Smith infirmary.

Don't Skip This!

Stand for Lithography
A man who is paid
Wages as big
As the name of his trade.
A man who can do
Expert work of this kind,
Except through World Wants,
Is quite hard to find.

WORLD HELP WANTS

Bring All Kinds of Workers.

MORE BODIES UNDER CAR OF SUNKEN WRECK

Authorities Now Place Number of Drowned Victims at 59.

'NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS'

President Wahle, of the Board of City Magistrates, One of the Witnesses To-Day

The Grand Jury investigation into alleged police court abuses and alleged illegal acts of one of the magistrates, closed to-day. C. G. F. Wahle, president of the Board of City Magistrates, was the last witness examined. He was in the Grand Jury room about half an hour.

The other witnesses heard to-day were Mark Alter, a lawyer, who had appeared twice previously; Leon and Aaron Levy, lawyers, and Solomon Rosenberg, an Essex Market Police Court practitioner. The most important testimony was given by Rosenberg.

He exhibited two checks signed by a city magistrate. Across the face of each check were stamped the words "Not sufficient funds."

Rosenberg explained at length, it is understood, how he came by the checks. He is said to have told the Grand Jury the magistrate in question borrowed $100 from him and gave a check in payment in a few days. The check came back to Rosenberg stamped as described.

He went to the magistrate and asked for an explanation. The magistrate explained so effectively that Rosenberg let him have $50 additional and took another check, dated ahead. This one was returned, too, and Rosenberg has complained that he has been unable to get a settlement.

The checks are in the possession of the Grand Jury. They will form part of the presentment it is expected that body will make in a few days concerning the magistrate.

Mark Alter, who has a big practice in Jefferson Market Court, was questioned closely, and when he came out of the room said to an Evening World reporter:

"The testimony given by me satisfied the Grand Jury that my relations with Magistrate Wahle have been above criticism and entirely honest. My testimony dispelled all the insinuations that have been unjustly cast upon Magistrate Wahle and myself."

Magistrate Wahle appeared at the Criminal Courts Building at noon accompanied by his personal counsel, William Rand, Jr., in answer to a letter received a few days ago from the foreman of the Grand Jury. This letter explained that certain charges had been made against certain magistrates and that the President of the Board of Magistrates the Grand Jury would be pleased to listen to him if he could.

He refused to discuss his testimony when he left the Grand Jury room. So far as can be learned the Grand Jury will be unable to establish the charge that a man accused of complicity in a robbery paid his bail to a magistrate in a police court recently. Other charges of a similar nature were not corroborated.

The testimony taken by the Grand Jury will be written and sent to District Attorney Jerome. It is quite possible he will send it to the Bar Association, and that proceedings will be instituted before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to have one of the city magistrates removed from the bench on the ground that he has placed himself under obligations to lawyers practicing before him.

WAR VETERAN TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Wife Found Brodbeck Hanging in Attic and Cut Him Down in Time.

Frederick Brodbeck, aged sixty, a foreman in the Highway Department of Richmond Borough, attempted to hang himself in the attic of his home to-day, but he was cut down before death by his wife, Brodbeck lives at 625 Madison street, near Concord, S. I.

A week ago Brodbeck, who is a civil war veteran, was recommended for not performing certain road work properly, since then he has brooded, and when the family went out to-day he prepared to kill himself.

Mrs. Brodbeck missed her husband the moment she returned to the house, and searched the building. Brodbeck had just stepped off a chair with a noose around his neck, and the end caught in a letter of the attic. His wife cut him down and he was taken to the S. R. Smith infirmary.

Don't Skip This!

Stand for Lithography
A man who is paid
Wages as big
As the name of his trade.
A man who can do
Expert work of this kind,
Except through World Wants,
Is quite hard to find.

WORLD HELP WANTS

Bring All Kinds of Workers.

PICTURE OF MRS. EDDY SHE MOST PREFERS.

MRS. EDDY TALKS FOR ONE MINUTE; SAYS "I AM WELL"

(Continued from First Page.)

12.51 when she appeared at the doorway, and stood there as though shrinking from entering, and Mr. Frye, standing behind her, urged her to advance, saying, "Go forward," and gently indicating with his hand the direction which he desired her to take.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT OF INTERVIEW

Answered Only a Few Questions Then Walked to Her Carriage To Take a Drive.

(By Associated Press.)
CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 30.—A representative of the Associated Press, who interviewed Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, head of the Christian Science Church, ten years ago, went to Pleasant View, Mrs. Eddy's home, to-day and was granted another interview by the same woman.

Although Mrs. Eddy, who was born in 1821, showed her advanced age in some respects, her voice to-day was clear and strong, and she gave no evidence of fragility or of any weakness not to be expected of a woman in her eighty-sixth year.

In addition to the reporters there were present Edwin S. Herring, first reader of the local Christian Science Church, Edward M. Pearson, secretary of the state of New Hampshire, Mr. Wilson, and Calvin A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary.

When the newspaper representatives assembled at Mrs. Eddy's home, Pleasant View, they were escorted to the double parlors on the east side of the house. A moment or two after they had been seated Frye announced Mrs. Eddy.

The leader of the Christian Science faith walked to the doorway and stood unaided before her interviewers. She did not advance beyond the threshold of the door and when it was seen that she would not enter the room for a prolonged interview a woman reporter, who had previously interviewed Mrs. Eddy, was delegated to talk to her to-day.

Hanging onto this rope, Stewart dragged himself to the door of the car and was soon on the roof. The coach had not been driven away, and from his perilous position he was rescued and hurried to the hospital, unconscious. Not until night did he learn that his wife and son had been killed.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

Public opinion here will rise in revolt should an investigation show any signs of whitewash. With just cars running at terrific speed, and even unaided in places, some mishaps have been reported. It is said that a man with railroad necessities for record breaking travel.

MAN CRUSHED UNDER A TRAIN ON THE BRIDGE

Brother and Large Crowd See Edlin Mangled by Wheels.

'NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS'

President Wahle, of the Board of City Magistrates, One of the Witnesses To-Day

The Grand Jury investigation into alleged police court abuses and alleged illegal acts of one of the magistrates, closed to-day. C. G. F. Wahle, president of the Board of City Magistrates, was the last witness examined. He was in the Grand Jury room about half an hour.

The other witnesses heard to-day were Mark Alter, a lawyer, who had appeared twice previously; Leon and Aaron Levy, lawyers, and Solomon Rosenberg, an Essex Market Police Court practitioner. The most important testimony was given by Rosenberg.

He exhibited two checks signed by a city magistrate. Across the face of each check were stamped the words "Not sufficient funds."

Rosenberg explained at length, it is understood, how he came by the checks. He is said to have told the Grand Jury the magistrate in question borrowed $100 from him and gave a check in payment in a few days. The check came back to Rosenberg stamped as described.

He went to the magistrate and asked for an explanation. The magistrate explained so effectively that Rosenberg let him have $50 additional and took another check, dated ahead. This one was returned, too, and Rosenberg has complained that he has been unable to get a settlement.

The checks are in the possession of the Grand Jury. They will form part of the presentment it is expected that body will make in a few days concerning the magistrate.

Mark Alter, who has a big practice in Jefferson Market Court, was questioned closely, and when he came out of the room said to an Evening World reporter:

"The testimony given by me satisfied the Grand Jury that my relations with Magistrate Wahle have been above criticism and entirely honest. My testimony dispelled all the insinuations that have been unjustly cast upon Magistrate Wahle and myself."

Magistrate Wahle appeared at the Criminal Courts Building at noon accompanied by his personal counsel, William Rand, Jr., in answer to a letter received a few days ago from the foreman of the Grand Jury. This letter explained that certain charges had been made against certain magistrates and that the President of the Board of Magistrates the Grand Jury would be pleased to listen to him if he could.

He refused to discuss his testimony when he left the Grand Jury room. So far as can be learned the Grand Jury will be unable to establish the charge that a man accused of complicity in a robbery paid his bail to a magistrate in a police court recently. Other charges of a similar nature were not corroborated.

The testimony taken by the Grand Jury will be written and sent to District Attorney Jerome. It is quite possible he will send it to the Bar Association, and that proceedings will be instituted before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to have one of the city magistrates removed from the bench on the ground that he has placed himself under obligations to lawyers practicing before him.

WAR VETERAN TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Wife Found Brodbeck Hanging in Attic and Cut Him Down in Time.

Frederick Brodbeck, aged sixty, a foreman in the Highway Department of Richmond Borough, attempted to hang himself in the attic of his home to-day, but he was cut down before death by his wife, Brodbeck lives at 625 Madison street, near Concord, S. I.

A week ago Brodbeck, who is a civil war veteran, was recommended for not performing certain road work properly, since then he has brooded, and when the family went out to-day he prepared to kill himself.

Mrs. Brodbeck missed her husband the moment she returned to the house, and searched the building. Brodbeck had just stepped off a chair with a noose around his neck, and the end caught in a letter of the attic. His wife cut him down and he was taken to the S. R. Smith infirmary.

Don't Skip This!

Stand for Lithography
A man who is paid
Wages as big
As the name of his trade.
A man who can do
Expert work of this kind,
Except through World Wants,
Is quite hard to find.

WORLD HELP WANTS

Bring All Kinds of Workers.

FESTETICS NOW BRINGS A SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Christian Science Row First Parted Count and His Wife.

'NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS'

President Wahle, of the Board of City Magistrates, One of the Witnesses To-Day

The Grand Jury investigation into alleged police court abuses and alleged illegal acts of one of the magistrates, closed to-day. C. G. F. Wahle, president of the Board of City Magistrates, was the last witness examined. He was in the Grand Jury room about half an hour.

The other witnesses heard to-day were Mark Alter, a lawyer, who had appeared twice previously; Leon and Aaron Levy, lawyers, and Solomon Rosenberg, an Essex Market Police Court practitioner. The most important testimony was given by Rosenberg.

He exhibited two checks signed by a city magistrate. Across the face of each check were stamped the words "Not sufficient funds."

Rosenberg explained at length, it is understood, how he came by the checks. He is said to have told the Grand Jury the magistrate in question borrowed $100 from him and gave a check in payment in a few days. The check came back to Rosenberg stamped as described.

He went to the magistrate and asked for an explanation. The magistrate explained so effectively that Rosenberg let him have $50 additional and took another check, dated ahead. This one was returned, too, and Rosenberg has complained that he has been unable to get a settlement.

The checks are in the possession of the Grand Jury. They will form part of the presentment it is expected that body will make in a few days concerning the magistrate.

Mark Alter, who has a big practice in Jefferson Market Court, was questioned closely, and when he came out of the room said to an Evening World reporter:

"The testimony given by me satisfied the Grand Jury that my relations with Magistrate Wahle have been above criticism and entirely honest. My testimony dispelled all the insinuations that have been unjustly cast upon Magistrate Wahle and myself."

Magistrate Wahle appeared at the Criminal Courts Building at noon accompanied by his personal counsel, William Rand, Jr., in answer to a letter received a few days ago from the foreman of the Grand Jury. This letter explained that certain charges had been made against certain magistrates and that the President of the Board of Magistrates the Grand Jury would be pleased to listen to him if he could.

He refused to discuss his testimony when he left the Grand Jury room. So far as can be learned the Grand Jury will be unable to establish the charge that a man accused of complicity in a robbery paid his bail to a magistrate in a police court recently. Other charges of a similar nature were not corroborated.

The testimony taken by the Grand Jury will be written and sent to District Attorney Jerome. It is quite possible he will send it to the Bar Association, and that proceedings will be instituted before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to have one of the city magistrates removed from the bench on the ground that he has placed himself under obligations to lawyers practicing before him.

WAR VETERAN TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Wife Found Brodbeck Hanging in Attic and Cut Him Down in Time.

Frederick Brodbeck, aged sixty, a foreman in the Highway Department of Richmond Borough, attempted to hang himself in the attic of his home to-day, but he was cut down before death by his wife, Brodbeck lives at 625 Madison street, near Concord, S. I.

A week ago Brodbeck, who is a civil war veteran, was recommended for not performing certain road work properly, since then he has brooded, and when the family went out to-day he prepared to kill himself.

Mrs. Brodbeck missed her husband the moment she returned to the house, and searched the building. Brodbeck had just stepped off a chair with a noose around his neck, and the end caught in a letter of the attic. His wife cut him down and he was taken to the S. R. Smith infirmary.

Don't Skip This!

Stand for Lithography
A man who is paid
Wages as big
As the name of his trade.
A man who can do
Expert work of this kind,
Except through World Wants,
Is quite hard to find.

WORLD HELP WANTS

Bring All Kinds of Workers.

The Wolfner Piano $250

Built to Give Satisfaction

Sold on Our Easy Terms
No Money Down
A Dollar a Week
No Interest No Extras
Delivered in Your Home
A Handsome Revolving
A Stool
A Protection Cover and
A Year's Tuning
Free
We are also agents for
Fosdman & Gray, McPhail,
J. T. Brooks, Kirchoff,
Caldwell, Regal,
The Simplex.

It makes musicians of us all.

NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER STORE
SIEGEL & COOPER
SIXTH AVE. 2nd FL. NEW YORK
J. B. GREENWICH, MGR.

Constipation

Inward Piles, Fullness of the Blood in the Head, Indigestion, Discomfort, Headache, Nervousness, Irritability, Sinking or Fluttering of the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Pain in the Head, Dizziness, Rising suddenly, Drowsiness, or Weakness before the Day, Difficulty of Breathing, Yellowishness of the Skin, and Pains in the Limbs, and Sudden Flashes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, A few doses of

Radway's Pills

will free the system of all the above-named disorders.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

RADWAY & CO.
For the past two years I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia and indigestion. After eating I would have a sensation of heat in the stomach, feel like vomiting, pain and distress in the head, and then I would become nervous. I tried everything that was recommended to me, but I was almost in despair. At last a friend persuaded me to try Radway's Pills, which I took a few days. I am glad to say that they not only relieved me but positively cured me. Ever after the bowels were established and the dyspepsia and nervousness disappeared. I feel like a new person. H. N. TREXLER, ALBANY, N. Y.

Be sure to get RADWAY'S PILLS and see that the name RADWAY is on what you buy. Made from Purely Vegetable Ingredients.

Sold in every respect to the ordinary powder and substances of the commonly advertised pills.

20 CENTS A BOX, AT DRUGGISTS, OR BY MAIL.
RADWAY & CO., 55 Elm St., N. Y.

CANDY

Left makes and sells more candy than any other man in the world—that means hundreds of thousands of people who are satisfied because satisfied.

BLACK WALNUT 10c
CHOCOLATE 10c
FUDGING 10c
SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY 10c
SCOTCH 10c
CHOCOLATE 10c
BELL 10c